April 25, 2012 - Unraveling Ravel

Laura Veeze – Violin
Norman Adams – Cello
Peter Allen – Piano

Chamber music by the great Frenchman.

Chris Palmer has designed a power-packed series for this year's chamber music society season.

We are keeping the price low, $150 for 23 concerts (less than $7 per concert) to allow people on low fixed incomes to attend).

Even with the generous support of Bell Aliant, NS Government, Canadian Heritage and the Chester Educational Foundation the series doesn't pay for itself and therefore we ask for donations to ensure its continuance.

I sincerely hope you share my enthusiasm for the 2011-2012 series, subscribe and encourage your friends and family to do likewise. Hope to see you on Sept. 28.

Warm regards,

Chris Wilcox
Managing and Artistic Director
Scotia Festival of Music

September 28, 2011

Stacie Dunlop – Soprano
 Krista Vincent – Piano
 Roberta Baker – Choreography and direction

Rêve doux-amer/Bittersweet Dream: follow soprano Stacie Dunlop and pianist Krista Vincent through the memories of a life lived fully, exploring childhood, sexuality and finally death. The poetry of Charles Baudelaire's Les Fleurs du mal (Flowers of Evil) is set by composers Claude Debussy, Elliot Carter, Sheila Silver and Jonathan Harvey, along with three World Premieres by Canadian composers Clark Ross, Scott Godin and Tawnie Olson. With staging by director Roberta Barker and imagery inspired by the art of Baudelaire's age, it will be an evening to remember.
